

re:concile

ambassadors of Hope for transformation.

2 Cor. 5:17-20

2018

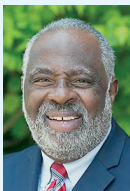

Great Commission Conference

February 22-24, 2018

First Baptist Church, Harvester

Dr. James Merritt
Pastor, Cross Pointe
Church, Atlanta, Ga.

Dr. Robert Smith
Chair of Divinity,
Beeson Divinity School,
Birmingham, Ala.

Ken Whitten
Pastor, Idlewild Baptist Church, Lutz, Fla.

James Choung
Vice president of
strategy and innovation,
InterVarsity Christian
Fellowship/USA

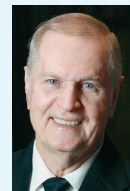

Adam Thomason
Minister of marriage
and relationships,
advocate for peace and
reconciliation

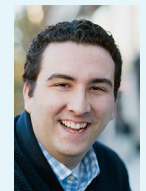

Linda Cooper
President, national WMU

Mark Tolbert
Director of the Caskey
Center for Church
Excellence, New Orleans
Baptist Theological Seminary

James Ogan
President, Fellowship
of Missouri Baptist Evangelists

Michael Wear Expert and strategist at the intersection of faith,
politics, and American public life

A conference designed to encourage, equip, and challenge Missouri Baptists!

The Great Commission Conference enters its second year with a new name and broader focus. This annual event encourages, equips, and challenges Missouri Baptists to transform lives and communities with the gospel.

The unifying theme this year is "Re:concile—ambassadors of hope for transformation." The theme, drawn from 2 Cor. 5:17-20, informs the biblical preaching and teaching, musical worship, transformation talks, and networking during the conference.

The teaching elevates your biblical understanding of disciple-making and evangelism with an emphasis on the need for revival and renewal in your church. In addition, Friday night features an inter-generational prayer and worship gathering as we pray for God to move on middle school, high school, and university campuses throughout the state.

The conference also includes 25-minute "transformation talks," highlighting various issues related to reconciliation and community transformation—including racial reconciliation, global orphan care, adoption and foster care, small church evangelism, and

Register online at www.mobaptist.org/gcc