

MISSIONARY HIGHLIGHT: November 12

Jon Cole
JAPAN

Today we pray for one of our international missionaries serving in Japan.

Now, Japan is one of the most difficult mission fields in the world, partly because the Japanese language is very difficult to learn.

But our missionary, Jon Cole, also communicates in other ways. It so happens he's a pretty good trumpet player. He might have become a professional jazz musician if the Lord had not called him to mission service.

So he plays trumpet in the Japanese language church he attends. The band plays music at the local metro station for outreach.

Our church supports Jon through our Cooperative Program giving. Today, let's give thanks that he can use his God-given music talents there in Japan. And let's ask that many will come to faith in Christ through Jon's ministry.
