

Sunday School Worker's Covenant

Believing that the privilege of guiding people in the Christian way of life is worthy of my best, I covenant as a worker in the Sunday School of my church to ---

- Conduct myself in a manner that reflects the principles of the New Testament, and seek the help of the Holy Spirit to assist me in being faithful and efficient in my work (Eph. 4:1).
- Be regular and punctual in attendance; and, in case of unavoidable absence, give notice of my absence to the appropriate people as far in advance as possible (I Cor. 4:2).
- Make thorough preparation of the lesson and for my other duties each week (2 Tim. 2:15).
- Use the Bible as the main textbook with my class on Sunday morning, or other meeting times, and help my students understand it and grow to love it (Ps. 119:16).
- Contribute my tithe to my church's budget (Mal. 3:10).
- Attend the regular planning meetings (Luke 14:28-30).
- Visit prospects frequently and make a special effort to contact absentees each week (Acts 2:46).
- Participate in at least one training event outside the church each year (Prov. 15:28a).
- Support the vision and core values of the church and cooperate wholeheartedly in the plans and activities of the church and Sunday School (I Cor. 3:9).
- Make witnessing a normal part of my lifestyle and encourage my students and others to do the same (Prov. 11:30).
- Seek to discover and meet the needs of those with whom I come into contact, especially my students, fellow church members and prospects for my church (Gal. 6:2).
- Pray regularly for the church, the Sunday School, the officers and teachers, and for my students and the homes from which they come (I Thess. 5:17).
- Apply the teachings of Christ in moral and social issues of my everyday life (Jas. 1:22).

With the help of God, I will do my utmost to keep this covenant.
