After attending training in 1998, Jeanne Todd served as site coordinator of Bethel Baptist Association Christian Women's Job Corps until July 31, 2008. She is a member of the CWJC/CMJC National Advisory Group and serves as a trainer for National Certification Training. Now a member of BBA/CWJC's advisory council, Jeanne also serves as MO's state volunteer coordinator for CWJC/CMJC.

Jeanne lives in Hannibal with her husband, Richard, who has taught at HLG for 33 years. They are members of Immanuel Baptist Church. They have two grown children, three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; one step-granddaughter and two step-great-grandsons.
