Missouri Prayerways

"But truly God has listened, He has attended to the voice of my prayer." Psalm 66:19

June 1: D. W., SEA, writes, "You can pray for me, as I daily seek new people to share the gospel with, that I would encounter people with open hearts to listen and accept the good news. Pray for our family, as we prepare for our stateside time the second half of this year, that God would prepare a restful and energizing time in the U.S."//Carol Barbour, Retired, SSAP, asks for continued prayer for her husband, Joe, and herself as she cares for him//Pray that Jernigan Schwent, Missouri, will always look to the Father for spiritual and physical strength//As MK A. T., 20, CAP, finishes his first year of college, pray that he will find a good summer job, that his ankle will heal so that he can participate in summer soccer practice, and that he would find strong Christian friends to help deepen his spiritual walk//Pray that MK B. D., 7, CAP, will grow in his faith and that he would learn the local language well now that his family have moved to a new country. Pray that he would continue to do well in his local school and make friends.

June 2: Bonnie Carter, DOM Spouse, Crossroads Association, asks prayer for her Students Mission Teams who start working in VBS today. Pray that they will stay focused as they teach children about Jesus in 13 VBSs and a Canadian mission trip this summer, and that team members will draw closer to God. Pray for Bonnie's family to find time for each other, for rest, and for time with God during this busy season.

June 3: Lesotho: Pray for national pastor, Rantialane. He is facing very difficult times. Pray for a church planting movement to begin among the Basotho people in Lesotho and beyond//Lift up Ida Mae Claiborne, Retired, Kansas, as she continues to bring joy to those around her.

June 4: On this the second day of a month long training for life in Africa, Kimbre Thrower, SSAP, asks prayer that her family will learn and grow from this experience and her daughter, MK Emma Thrower, 11, SSAP, will have a fun day as she hangs out with other MK's//Ask the Lord to show Bruce Muskrat, Retired, AMP, how he needs to move forward in ministry during his retirement years.

June 5: As the months of June and July are incredibly busy with near constant travel and extra responsibilities, pray for good health, strength to persevere, and that God would be glorified in all Stephen Hagen, SEA, does.

June 6: Please be in prayer for those who will be traveling to attend the National WMU Missions Celebration, SBC Pastor's Conference, and Southern Baptist Convention Annual Meeting, in Birmingham, which begins this Sunday through Wednesday. Also remember to pray for God to be glorified through the students who will be attending Super Summer during each of the two weeks from June 9 to 21.

June 7: Harmony Zeichik, Missouri, writes, “I would love prayer for me as a mother to be intentional with how I spend my time with my two kiddos, opportunities to be intentional with our neighbors this summer, and, also, for a refreshing summer of travel with family before a very busy fall for our family.”

June 8: Peter Assad, Missouri, asks prayer for perseverance to “fight the good fight” despite the lack of gospel fruit evidence, and as the enemy seeks to distract, as they follow by faith the One who is faithful//Pray for Brenda Lee, Retired, Nebraska; Donna Willcoxon, Retired, Utah; and Linda Abanathy, DOM Spouse, Southeast Missouri Association, to always remain faithful in sharing their love for the Lord//Connie Craig, Vice President, MWMU Board, writes, “I would appreciate prayers that I use wise leadership skills to do the work that God has laid out before me.”
