LEADER BIBLE STUDY

“Congratulations! Say hello to your new son,” the nurse said as she placed the infant into the waiting arms of his teary-eyed, adoptive mother. It was love at first sight. Many adoptive parents have had the opportunity to experience the joy of holding their newborn babies. Though they did not physically birth the child, the adoptive parents’ love and gratitude equals that of birth parents. Christian adoptive parents recognize the providence of God in the adoption process, knowing this is the special child He has for them. One of the Bible’s most important men was an adopted child.

To give you a little backstory, fearful the Israelites might rebel, Egypt’s Pharaoh ordered two Hebrew midwives to kill any boys born to Hebrew mothers. Because these midwives feared God, they did not follow through.

One clever Hebrew woman named Jochebed placed her baby in a basket and placed it in the reeds by the bank the Nile River. Pharaoh’s daughter spotted the basket and sent one of her servants to get it. When she discovered the baby inside, she felt sorry for him.

Moses sister, Miriam, had followed the basket and saw the rescue. She suggested that a Hebrew woman be found to nurse him. So it was the baby’s biological mother who nurtured him until he was old enough to live as the adopted son of Pharaoh’s daughter. She named him Moses.

How does the story of baby Moses demonstrate the providence of God?

In what ways does the story show that God cares for all people?

MIRIAM AND MOSES

Pharaoh, the king, was worried. "There are too many Hebrew slaves. One day they will attack us!" he said. Pharaoh gave a horrible command. When the Israelite women had babies, his people were ordered to kill the boy babies!

One mother hid her baby boy until she could not keep him hidden any longer. She took a basket and covered it with tar so that it would float. Then she placed her baby boy in the basket and put the basket in the river among the reeds so that it would not float away. Miriam, the baby's sister, watched nearby.

When Pharaoh's daughter came to the river, she saw the basket and sent a servant to take it from the water. She opened the basket and found a baby inside. He was crying. "This is a Hebrew baby," she said.

Miriam quickly ran up from her hiding place. "Should I get someone to take care of the baby for you?" she asked.

"Yes," answered Pharaoh's daughter. Miriam left but quickly came back with her and the baby's own mother! Pharaoh's daughter told the mother to care for the baby. When the baby was older, he came to live with Pharaoh's daughter. She named him Moses because the name meant she had taken him from the water.

REVIEW

- Ask a volunteer to pull the yarn from the basket until a question card is revealed. Remind the kids that Moses' family had to be quiet when they were trying to hide him. Read the card and tell the kids to tiptoe to two or three people and whisper the answer or whisper and ask what the answer is. Continue until all the questions have been used.

- Ask the kids to recall the people named during the Introductory Activity.
- After each one is named, ask: "Does God love ____?" filling in the blank with the named person or group.
- Explain that God made each person and because He made them, He loves them.

Notes

► Show the "Miriam and Moses: Life Action" video.

- Ask who wanted to feel important in the video. Ask what they were doing to try to feel important. Ask who Governor Miguel said was important to God.
- Ask if kids ever try to show that they are better than someone else. Ask if kids ever try to put someone else down. Ask if God loves them more if they are better at something than their friends. Ask who God loves.

PRACTICE A LIFE VERSE

- Read Ephesians 4:32 from the display. Read the verse again, a few words at a time, and ask the kids to echo each phrase.

Direct the kids to tape the circles onto the floor in a random pattern, with several inches separating each circle.
4. Choose a volunteer. Call out either God or Me. Explain that the volunteer must step onto a circle that matches what you said. MIRIAM AND MOSES

EXODUS 1:8-2:10

The Pharaoh thought there were too many Hebrews in Egypt. He wanted to kill the Hebrew baby boys.

One mother wanted to protect her baby boy. She hid him for three months. But he grew and she could not hide him any longer. She made a basket from reeds. She coated the basket with tar to keep the water out. Then she put the baby in the basket and set the basket in the reeds by the river. The mother told the baby's sister, Miriam, to watch.

The Pharaoh's daughter came to the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent a servant to get it. When she saw the baby in the basket, he was crying. She felt sorry for him and said, "This is one of the Hebrew boys."

Miriam said, "Should I go and call one of the Hebrew women to take care of the baby?"

Pharaoh's daughter said yes. Miriam brought her and the baby's own mother. When the baby was older the mother took him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. She named him Moses.
