MISSOURI MISSIONS OFFERING

WHERE YOUR GIFTS GO

Want to know how your MMO contributions help churches transform lives and communities with the Gospel?

Even your chump change goes a long way!

Your gifts of any size support prayer and evangelism, church planting and renewal, missions mobilization, collegiate ministries, disaster relief, and ministries at six affiliated entities. Here's a sampling:

- $1 provides a stamp, envelope, and stationery for a Baptist Homes resident to write a letter to a family member.
- $8 secures a Bible for a disaster survivor.
- $17 buys a multi-colored soccer ball designed to share the gospel with participants in sports camps.
- $20 provides educational materials to help pastors and students engage with the changing culture; or, it helps fund a Christian counseling session at the Children's Home.
- $30 provides a case of diapers for a Children's Home client.
- $35 registers a girl in grades 1-6 for G.E.M. (Girls Experiencing Missions).
- $40 secures the daily services of either a translator or a van driver for an MBC church embarking on a vision trip within the MBC-Puebla, Mexico, partnership.
- $45 provides a Vacation Bible School Go & Tell Kids packet to help adults host a VBS anywhere in the world.
- $50 sends an at-risk child to a Sports Crusaders camp.
- $56 secures resources for a Backyard Kids Club that enables a church to share the gospel with 50 children.
- $70 provides respite care for a Missouri Baptist foster family through the Children's Home.
- $75 equips a church and its leaders for renewal through the Resound Network.
- $100 helps cover the cost of a Children's Home adoption assessment.
- $125 supports nursing students at Missouri Baptist University serving in overseas health clinics; or, it provides a tarp, tub, and food for survivors of tornadoes.
- $135 covers course fees for one credit hour for a nursing student at Southwest Baptist University's Mercy College of Health Professions.
- $150 supports an SBU student serving on an overseas mission trip through the Center for Global Connections.
