

MIKE & JENNIFER BRUNGARDT

📍 Bogota, Colombia

Venezuela has been in turmoil for years with riots, food shortages and many other problems. The situation has deteriorated to the extent that by 2016 the last Southern Baptist missionaries were forced to leave.

Today we are going to pray for two of our missionaries, Mike and Jennifer Brungardt, who serve in Colombia, the country next door to Venezuela. Mike and Jennifer invited Venezuelan Baptist leaders to come to Bogota, the capital of Colombia, to talk about help.

The Venezuelans did have some sad stories about their lives these days. But there were also amazing stories about what God was doing for them amid their tragic situation. Mike and Jennifer provided tracts to help the Baptists witness, and they provided seeds so they could grow food to eat.

Today can we pray for Mike and Jennifer, our missionaries we support through the Cooperative Program? And can we pray for all the Christians, especially our Baptist colleagues, who are having such a hard time there in Venezuela.
