E., 12, ASAP, write, "Because she has a soft spot for the poor, I am going to ask you to pray around that theme: Please pray for the poor of Pakistan who are facing so many issues. In the last few years, floods have destroyed crops and homes. The three to four million Christians of Pakistan have often been treated poorly by the majority population, remaining in generational poverty. In February, Pakistan and Afghanistan went to war because of ongoing Taliban attacks in Pakistan. Just after they went to war, the conflict in Iran began. Since Pakistan has so many Shia, anti-American protests have erupted around the country, leading to even greater instability. Then the Strait of Hormuz closed, cutting off oil supplies to Pakistan, leading to significant inflation, school and office closures, and disruption of normal life. In the midst of these difficulties, the poor of Pakistan are suffering, especially the Christian poor and the Muslim-background believers in Pakistan. God's Word says, "Blessed are you who are poor" (Luke 6:20).
